I am for state's rights and individual responsibility. I am interested in making Utah a sovereign republic under the Constitutions. The federal government has treated Utah as a federal territory since 1850 and will not decrease its power over us unless our state demands sovereignty and we the people demand our rights and assume our individual responsibilities.

The Legislature has made minimal progress toward sovereignty in the last session. We must build on that platform while we can. It is not difficult to see the danger of ever increasing power of the federal (national) government.

Some critical essentials are:

1. Utah must assume sovereignty over the land within its borders.
2. The people must be freed from federal income tax. I endorse the Liberty Amendment.
3. The Utah Legislature must elect our federal senators as constitutionally provided.
4. The Utah Legislature must again become a true bicameral entity with each county represented by a senator.
5. Local school boards must assume more local responsibility.
6. We must secure our borders from unlawful invasion or become a sanctuary state with all of the financial burdens that follow.
7. We must reinstall a working responsible Electoral College to ensure qualified leadership at the presidential level .
8. Et cetera.
